CHAPTER IV
CONCLUSION AND SUGGESTIONS

4.1 Conclusion

In this study, the writer focuses on the differences of the main character description in the Sleeping Beauty’s short story and movie. The first part of the analysis discusses about description of the main character in the Sleeping Beauty short story by Charles Perrault. In this part, Princess described beautiful, tough, and smart. Description of Princess in short story is more complex than in the film because they have different need and plot. Perrault described the character as a strong woman. Perrault did not finish the story with "Happily Ever After" like in the Disney version. The story was probably to remind young ladies that even if wait a hundred years for prince to come, there still will be some obstacles you will have to face as a couple.

The second part of the analysis discusses about characterization of the main character in the Sleeping Beauty film by Walt Disney. In this part, Princess Aurora described beautiful, obedient, smart, and dreamer. Description of Princess in the film is more simple than in the short story because they have different need and plot. Disney described the character based on children need. So Disney changed several part of the story makes more simple story.

The result shows there are the main character description in the story. The main character of Sleeping Beauty in short story is beautiful, smart, and brave. The main character of Sleeping Beauty in film is beautiful, smart, obedient, and dreamer. Although they have similar description, but in telling the main characters in short story and film are different. The difference description of the main character shows the different struggle faced by main characters in short stories and film. The description of the main character in short story is brave. While the description of the main character are obedient and dreamer.

4.2 Suggestions

Based on the conclusion, the suggestion for the next researchers who conduct the similar research are contrasting the main character on Sleeping Beauty. There are two suggestions for the readers. First, the readers can take moral value from the study. Do not revenge, because revenge behaviour will lead to disputes and prolonged hostility, Allah and His Messenger SAW hate people who revenge. Allah recommends to forgiveness the fellow associate. Allah says in the Quran Ali Imran verse 133-134:

وَسَارِعُوا إِلَى مُفْتَقِرِينَ مِنَ الْمُسْلِمِينَ وَجَنَّتَيْنِ عَرْضَاهَا السَّمَوَاتُ وَالأَرْضُ أُعِدَّتْ لِلْمُتَّقِينَ

The meaning:

“And hasten so forgiveness from your Lord and a garden as wide as the heavens and earth are prepared for the righteous” (Ali Imron, verse 133).
The meaning:

Revenge behaviour will harm youself or someone else, besides hated by the people it is also hated by Allah and His Messenger Prophet Muhammad:

“The most hated God is a vengeful man”. (HR. Bukhari)

Second, the readers must be selective to take a quotation from another research which are not available including in this research, because this research is not perfect and have many mistakes in process of writing.
