Both of the words nuts does not mean peanut. It refers to his testicles, which he says it to describe that his testicles are alike with nuts. The word **ss* is the actual meaning which is part of human body called bottom. Afterwards, he says *d*ck*. It refers to the sex toy that is going to hit him in his bottom. Both spoken words are said by the term of visual.

April Margera : Oh, my God! What is that? What is that?

Ryan Dunn : I branded his butt.

Bam Margera : It's supposed to be a *d*ck*, but he did it six times, so now I have a *d*ck* farm on my **ss*.

The word *d*ck* refers to a single wound that it is supposed to happen. But, it is beyond his expectation which he actually has six wound that is like a farm of penis. There are two situation in this scene. First it seems funny because the wounds really look strange. The other situation he feels that it is really bad because his parents do not like his wound. His parents still see on his butt with regret expression as the parents.

king cobra comes into the *f*cking* thing. I'm like... Dude, I'm staying up here. You *f*ckers* are *sses. I don't trust anybody. And you made me waste my beer.

He says *f*cking van*. He tells there is nowhere safe but the van car which he is sitting on. He feels terrified and frustration for what is happening. The word “what the *f*ck* is snake” shows that he is really surprised and scared of snake, especially king cobra. The word “*sh*t-load*” does not mean that they bring human feces, but they bring lots of bees and they are going to release it the bees through the sun roof the limo. The situation of this scene is funny to him, because he plans to do prank to his friends how will arrive with limousine car.

By saying this word, Bam wishes that he cannot bear pain from his burned butt. He means to say that he asks God to reduce his pain away.

4.4 Discussion

Bam Margera who is one of the cast members of Jackass Number two has spoken four of eight categories. They are body function, copulative, excretory, and religious. The writer considered that Bam Margera prefers to utter the words that have one syllable, such as **ss*, *d*ck*, *sh*t*, and *f*ck*. furthermore, the words are easy to remember and speak. Copulative is the highest second after body function term, and it is possible for Bam to utter those words outside the movies.

The writer found that the previous movie entitled Jackass the Movie is less dynamic than the next one, where it shows in the movie with less conversation and it seems monotone. In the second Movie “Jackass Number Two” Bam Margera utters swear word the most and the swear words he says can represent all the cast member in the both movie, because the categories of swear word in the first movie are less than Jackass Number two. In addition, the previous study that was conducted by Budiwanto Cipto is totally different, where every scene is not supported by the other cast member as the participant like in the second movie which they give so much possibility for Bam Margera to utter swear words. In Jackass Number Two Bam Margera is more active to swear because the other cast members are there to see Bam Margera's scene. Whether the other cast members say anything or not. They are considered as the trigger of swearing because by the existence of them, Bam can expressed what he feels to the others.

In addition, there are many swear words of Javanese that consist in research entitled Teenager of Cirebon regency which is interesting to discuss. There are another examples of Javanese swear word that Indonesian use them to insult and English do not use, such as "sapi" (Cow), "raimu" (your face), "matamu" (your eyes), "ndasmu" (your head), etc. the word "sapi" includes in animal term. "raimu", "matamu", "ndasmu" include in body function term.

The situation in the movie Jackass Number two with the teenager in regency of Cirebon which consists in thesis of Aditya is quite different. The writer found that the situation the thesis is less than Jackass Number two, where all the participants and Bam Margera are professionals. Meanwhile, the teenager in Cirebon regency are just a common people who utter swear words in funny situation mostly. Thus, there are no dangerous materials and performances existing when swear words are uttered. It is kind of different level to compare with Jackass Number two and the previous movie that was analyzed by Budiwanto Cipto.

The study tells about the swear word which it is kind of bad word to say. By reading this study, the writer hopes to the readers to understand how God can see us. We know that we would better say everything nicely. There is a surah in Quran which tells about how important for mankind to say nicely. It consists in surah Qaf verse 18 which tells that:

Man does not utter any word except with him is an observer prepared.

The verse tells us that there is always an observer close by us recording all of our utterances and acts that cannot be seen.

It also can be related in the social value where swear words is really harm to be said by an educated person. It is a must for educated people to say everything nice. So that the society will appreciate person who can control the words in society.
