This research was intended to analyze women's speech features used by the main characters in "The Chronicles of Narnia: The Lion, The Witch And The Wardrobe" Movie. Women's speech features are features that specifically indicate the characteristic of women's language and show the differences of language usage between men and women. Because the main characters in this movie are female, the writer decided to analyze the use of women's speech features by the main characters in "The Chronicles of Narnia: The Lion, The Witch and The Wardrobe" movie and the type of women's speech features which occurs most frequently by the main characters in this movie. This research was conducted using descriptive method. The data were taken from the scripts that are the words, phrases, clauses, and sentences that used by the main characters of the movie. Then the data were analyzed by identifying and classifying the ten types of women's speech features defined by Lakoff. The results show that not all types of women's speech features occur in the dialogues. There are only nine types of women's speech features used by the main characters of this movie. They are lexical hedges or filler, tag question, rising intonation, empty adjective, intensifier, hypercorrect grammar, superpolite form, avoidance of strong swear words, and emphatic stress. One feature which did not occur in the dialogues is precise colour terms. Moreover, women's speech features which occurs most frequently by the main characters of this movie are lexical hedges or fillers and intensifier.
