4.1 Kinds of Swear Words in the Four Brothers movie

In this section, the writer presents the conversation that is related to the kinds of swear words in four brothers movie as well as the analysis.

4.1.1 The Swear Words in Sex Terms (30.3%)

This term is related to sexual activities. The word as the example of this term is “*f*ck*”. But in this Four Brothers movie the words “*f*ck*” are not used as the real meaning. According to Munier (2010:138) F*ck is arguably the most versatile and functional obscenity in the English language. So, there are many meanings to interpret the word “*f*ck*”. The word *f*ck* is the base word, and this word has many forms. In line with Munier, Johnson (1995:10) says F*ck is mother of the word. As described by Munier in his book there are many forms of the word *f*ck*. For example: “*f*ck up*”, “*F*cking*”, “*f*ck off*” and “*f*ck you*”. The discussion as follow:

1. (00:02:31) Conversation in the Samir’s shop

Sammir	: Please! Take it. Please. –
Goatee	: Shut up, man. Come on.
Sammir	: I want no trouble.
Goatee	: Shut the “ f*ck up ”.

From conversation above, the purpose Goatee says “*f*ck up*” is to make Samir silent. The meaning “*f*ck up*” here is a mouth of Samir. Because according to goatee, Samir talks to much.

2. (00:09:26) Conversation in the Jerry house at garden

Lt Green : Yeah, be easy, Bobby. We got these punks. Kid playing basketball across the street, witnessed two gangbangers running in there, shooting up the place--

Bobby: Come on, Green. I used to make a good living around here because cops like you guys couldn't find tits in a strip joint. Why don't you come inside, have some coffee and some doughnuts and then take your boy and get the "f*ck" out of here, okay? Come on.

Lt Green : Charming guy.

In this conversation, Bobby and Lt Green are on the Jerry garden. Lt Green told Bobby how incidents happened to his mother. But Bobby feels inconvenient with the cop that comes to Jerry house. The word "F*ck" here is to express his feeling if he feels not comfortable with the cops that come to Jerry house. So the police can go out from Jerry house.

3. (00:15:10) Conversation in the living room

Bobby : She wasn't your girl as of yesterday, man. She had another man. So I'm confused.

Angel : What are you talking about, man? She is my girl!

Jerry : He's right!

Bobby : Let's just play some "f*cking" Turkey Cup, man. How about that?

This conversation shows that Bobby is a little angry to Angel, because Angel brings his girlfriend to Mrs. Evelyn's house, so his girlfriend lives in Mrs. Evelyn's house. Bobby is angry with this condition and he says swearing “*f*ck*” to change the conversation about.

4. (00:19:00) Conversation in the dining room

Bobby : To h*ll with this, man. Let's go get a pickup game. I wanna see some quick sticks and some tight passing.

Angel : It's too cold, man. I ain't come all the way back out here to go play no hockey.

Bobby : Come on, ladies, let's show these guys some “*f*cking*” skills!

Word “*F*ck*” here is to express enthusiasm of Bobby to play hockey to show the great skill, it is not only Bobby but also with his brother.

5. (00:21:34) Conversation lawyer office

Angel : “*Bullsh*t*”, Bobby!

Bobby : I don't care! La Vida Loca ain't staying in this house one more night. So get her stuff

This scene shows the anger of Angel, because Bobby forbids Angel's girlfriend to live in the Mrs. Evelyn house. But Angel thought this home is not Bobbie's home. That is why Angel is angry to Bobby and uses swear words to Bobby.

3. (00:26:50) Conversation in the old building

Angel : Which one of your boys shot up the liquor store on 104th Street? The police got witnesses, bra. Don't even hit us with no “*bullsh*t*”

Bobby : Okay, tough guy.

Hey! Now is the talking part. You better start saying what the “*f*ck*” I wanna hear. Speak.

The word “*bullsh*t*” here means refer to lie. He wants to truth answer from interlocutors.

4. (00:27:45) Conversation in front of basket ball field.

Bobby : It's 10:02 and these f*cking lights are still on.

Angel : I know you know who did this, homeboy.

Bobby : This is “*bullsh*t*”. Let's pop this motherf*cker right now.

The explanation from informant is not valid after the time passed 10:00. Informant says the lights will be off at 10:00. That is why Bobby says “*bullsh*t*”. The word “*bullsh*t*” means nonsense.

5. (00:55:47) Conversation in the dining room

Bobby : Jerry, you coming with us? Don't you wanna find out who hired them?

Angel : Yeah, don't you wanna find out who killed Mom?

Jerry : Of course I do, man. –

Bobby : Let's go. Stop "*bullsh*t*ing". Come on.

In this conversation Bobby says "*bullsh*t*ing" for stopping the conversation and lets go to find out who killed his mom. The meaning of "*bullsh*t*ing" here is the talk that is not needed.

6. (00:36:11) Conversation in the Damian apartment

Bobby : Yo, Damian! You Damian?

Angel : Why are you pulling out guns and "*sh*t*", dog?

Here Angel is angry to Bobby, because Bobby puts his gun and that makes Damian run. Damian does not know who is Bobby and Angel. That is why Damian is running. Angel uses word "dog" to Bobby because of Bobby's stupidity.

7. (00:49:01) Conversation in the Victor's restaurant

Victor : You hungry, Evan? You must be hungry, right?

Evan : I'm sorry-- -

Victor : Don't apologize! Dog's gotta eat, right? L tell you what, you wanna come in my restaurant and eat? Go ahead! Eat, dog, eat! Get the f*ck out of my seat, man! Eat! That's a good boy. That's a good boy.

The word "dog" used by Victor is to insult Evan who just eats when Victor talks to him. The Word dog is a real meaning. Victor is equating Evan with the dog who always eats all the time.

4.1.7 Religious Matters Term

In this section the writer's findings of swear word in Religious matters term. The example of this term is "godd*mn".

The discussion as follow:

1. (01:02:15) conversation in the car
Angel : Godd*mn, Jerry.

The words "godd*mn" used by Angel means to express his feeling that he is disappointed with Jerry. In this scene Angel sees Jerry from the car. Jerry gets out from assurance building. Jerry wants to get the assurance of his mother.

2. (00:28:47) Conversation in the Mrs. Evelyn's house
Jack : Why would anybody wanna kill the sweetest woman in the godd*mn world?
Bobby : I don't know, Jackie. I don't know.

In this scene the word "godd*mn" used by Jack refers to the world that is God's world.

3. (01:33:06) Conversation in the empty field
Victor : Godd*mn it, I like the way you do business! You're a reasonable man. You should have let me in on your project. We could have been partners. Could have been a sweet deal for both of us. Now it just a sweet deal for me.

In this scene, Victor receives the money from Jerry to make an agreement. The word "Godd*mn" used by Victor is to express his feeling for receiving the money.

4.2 The reason of Swearing

There are many reasons to use to swear words. As described in chapter 2, there are seven reasons to pronoun swear words, such as pain relief, power and control, non-violent retribution, humor, peer and social bonding, self-expression, and psychological and physical health. The writer will describe what the reasons of using swear words in the movie “Four Brothers”.

4.2.1 Pain Relief

Pain relief is used to reduce the pain that one feels. In this movie there is a reason to symbolize the pain and try to restrain the pain by cursing. The conversation in this movie that is concerned with this reason is:

(00:37:34) conversation in the Damian’s apartmsent

Bobby : Angel! Angel! Get this f*cking dog off my leg!
 “*Sh*t*”! There’s a dog trying to eat me, man!
 Help me, man.
 Angel : hold on!

In this scene Bobby is bitten by Damian’s dog. Bobby feels painful because the dog bites Bobby’s leg.

4.2.2 Power and Control

The reason of this one is used to increase the confidence if we are in a bad situation. This reason also shows our strength to fight, not just being victimized who does not have the power.

(00:27:17) Conversation in the old building

Informant : Because, b*tch, police said those people wasn't killed till 11:00.

Bobby : So what?

Informant : So they turn the court lights out at 10:00!

Bobby : Let's go. Let's go.

Informant : Now, where we going, man? The f*ck y'all taking me?

Bobby : You little bastards need to stay in school.

Angel : That's what you get for calling my brother a b*tch.

Jack ; I hope you all have a very nice evening.

In this scene there are so many swear words spoken by informant, the reason he uses swear word is to describe that he is not afraid with Bobby, Angel, and Jack.

4.2.3 Non-violent Retribution

The means of this reason is to be used to someone or something that do crimes to the victim but the victims will fight back without doing violence. The victim just says swear words to fight back the crime to him.

(01:39:16) Conversation in the police office

Ellis : Sit him down.

Bobby : D*mn! You girls are trying to kill me!

This scene Bobby says “d*mn” to the police because he feels painful because the police hits Bobby. “D*mn” indicates Bobby’s pain and he does not avenge to the police.

4.2.4 Humor

It means only for joke, This is one reason used by detractors to make a mockery or a joke to interlocutors so that the atmosphere does not become tense and turns into exciting conversation, because if this filthy words are used to peers will become more familiar atmosphere when it is used in the same age. The discussions as follows:

1. (00:14:02) Conversation in Evelyn's house at Jack's bedroom

Angel : It's a little heavy in there. I'm gonna just go outside and get me a little air.

Bobby : You're full of *sh*t*, man. You can smell that “*ss” from down the street, huh?

Angel : What are you talking about?

This conversation is about Angel who wants to go to find fresh air but Bobby knows that is just nonsense. Bobby knows that Angel wants to meet his girlfriends but he is shy to tell to Bobby because his girlfriend has affair with another man.

2. (00:23:06) Conversation in the bar

Bobby : Jack licks ass crack and ball sack.

Jack : Jack doesn't lick ass crack and ball sack! Jack likes boobs. Jack got fans. Jack's got lots of fans.

In this scene the four bothers are drunk in the bar. The word “ass” used by Bobby and Jack is a real meaning of this word and it is just for make a joke.

4.2.5 Peer and social bonding

The means of peer and social bonding reason is use in certain groups, such as those used in gangs. Most of them use swear words. Using swear words this certain group will look more intimate.

- (00:05:25) Conversation in front of Jerry house
- Lt Green : Been a long time since anybody seen that face around here.
- Fowler : Must've gotten off for good behavior.
- Lt green : Not likely. That's Bobby Mercer. Heavyweight champion f*ck-up of the family. And that's a well defended title. Would've made his daddy proud if he had ever had one. I used to know him a little. Played hockey with the boy. Got thrown out of 60 odd games before the league had finally had enough of him. They called him the Michigan Mauler.

Fowler : Who's the kid? –

Lt green :Oh, that's Jack. He's the youngest. First-class f*ck-up, third-class rock star.

In this scene Lt Green tells Fowler about mercer family.

Lt Green and Fowler are policeman. In this conversation he also uses swear words. This makes the conversation will be more chummy with the same group.

4.2.6 Self-expressions

For this reasons it explains the swear words representatively of ours feeling such as angry, sad, happy, sick, and etc.

1. (00:37:11) Conversation in apartment of Damian

Bobby : Oh, sh*t!

Damian : Yo, don't shoot my dog, man!
They got him! That's right!

In this scene Bobby is shocked, because Damian take off his dog to attack Bobby and Bobby express his shocked by saying “*sh*t*”.

2. (00:21:34) Conversation Mr. Bradford's office

Bobby : That'll look good on you.

Jack : Whatever, man. You're f*cking with me.

Jerry : Quit crying.
Come on, I got something to show y'all.

Jack feels a little jealous to his brother by using swear word because he only gets the necklace. The word “*f*cking*” means a joke because Bobby only gives necklace to Jack.

3. (01:15:27) conversation in front of Mrs. Evelyn's house
 Bobby : Don't you die on me, you little fairy. Come on, Jack.
 Please! You gotta f*cking breathe! Come on!
 Jack! Jack. Jack, come on, Jack, please! Please.. Jack.

In this scene, Bobby expresses his sadness about Jack conditions, because Jack will die after he got the shots from Victor's gang.

4. (01:33:06) Conversation in the empty field
 Victor : Godd*mn it, I like the way you do business! You're a reasonable man. You should have let me in on your project. We could have been partners. Could have been a sweet deal for both of us. Now it's just a sweet deal for me.

In this scene, Victor receives the money from Jerry that the money for making an agreement for a piece between Jerry's family and Victor's gang. The word "Godd*mn" is used by Victor to express his happy feeling for receiving the money from Jerry.
